

FOSTER BUNDY

Senior Advisor

Foster Bundy is a Missouri native and has lived in Arizona since attending the University of Arizona where he majored in Business. Since joining LevRose in 2017, Foster has worked diligently to represent his clients in investment sales throughout the Southeast Valley. His experience has allowed him to make connections with investors and property owners as he guides them through medical and industrial leasing and sales.

As an active member of TCN Worldwide, Foster has represented LevRose at regional conferences and given brokers, from across the country, insight into operations throughout the commercial sector. His hobbies include attending local sporting events and networking with peers over a game of golf.
