

ANNA MORI

Marketing & Videography Coordinator

After graduating Arizona State University with a degree in Film and Media Production, Anna joined the LevRose team in 2022. She began working with the company as a Video Intern in January of 2022 and joined the team full-time in August. Anna has been working on various film and video projects for several years and focused on editing, VFX and sound design during college.

Since transitioning into her role as Marketing and Videography Coordinator, Anna works closely with the brokers in the office to create content for the company and help run various social media platforms. Outside of the office Anna enjoys editing short films and playing with her cats.
