

BRANDEN MONDRAGON

Advisor

Branden Mondragon is a Colorado native and has lived in Arizona since graduating with a B.S. in Business Administration, where he majored in Finance from the Hasan School of Business. In 2021, he joined the LevRose team after working for a local brokerage where he focused primarily in medical offices. Ever since, Branden's specialty has largely been retail and office spaces throughout Scottsdale.

Using his expertise in finance, Branden's diverse background has provided him the knowledge to predict market trends and aid his clients in making smart real estate decisions. In his free time, Branden enjoys golfing in our beautiful Arizona weather.

After moving to Arizona, Branden worked for a local brokerage working with tenants, landlords, buyers and sellers of all asset classes throughout the Phoenix market. Combining his finance background with an exceptional work ethic Branden is dedicated to making sure his clients make the most educated commercial real estate decisions.
