

ZACH OLIVET

Advisor

Zach Olivet originally began his commercial real estate career at CBRE before joining LevRose in 2021. He now specializes in industrial, office and flex properties throughout Deer and West Valley. Prior to entering commercial real estate, Zach pursued a professional soccer career abroad while attending York St. John University where he received a degree in International Business Management.

As Zach continues to build his portfolio, he is dedicated to staying up to date with market trends as he assists his clients in making smart commercial real estate decisions. When he's not in the office, Zach enjoys kicking a soccer ball around the field.
