

CHRIS HUNTER

Advisor

Chris Hunter originally joined the LevRose team as an intern before transitioning into his role as an Advisor. His experience with market research and lead generation made him an easy fit into the leasing and selling of office spaces. Chris has spent the last three years specializing in Landlord and Tenant representation across the valley. Chris finds commercial real estate a very fulfilling career and enjoys helping businesses make their dreams become a reality. His largest transaction took place in 2023 for $974,837.

Chris' background includes a Bachelors in Psychology from Arizona State University and a minor in Real Estate from the W.P. Carey School of Business. He has always been an avid sports lover and enjoys spending his time playing golf, lacrosse and traveling.
